

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

SHFL Entertainment, Inc., ) Plaintiff, ) vs. )
CAREY RICHARDSON d/b/a iAPP SHOP, ) Defendant. )
Case No. 2:13-cv-01131-APG-CWH
ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's Proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#11), filed October 11, 2013. The stipulated plan does not comply with Local Rule ("LR") 26-1, which requires that within fourteen (14) days after the Rule 26(f) conference that the parties submit "a stipulated discovery plan and scheduling order." See LR 26-1(d). To the extent the parties differ as to the form or contents of the proposed plan, they must provide "a statement of each party's position on each point in dispute." Id.

Based on the proposed plan, it appears Defendant has refused to participate in a Rule 26(f) conference pending resolution of its motion to dismiss (#7), which challenges whether the Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant. A potentially dispositive motion does not provide for an automatic stay of discovery. Tradebay, LLC v. eBay, Inc., 278 F.R.D. 597, 600-01 (D. Nev. 2011) (“The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure do not provide for automatic or blanket stays of discovery when a potentially dispositive motion is pending.”). Moreover, though personal jurisdiction is a critical preliminary question, a motion challenging personal jurisdiction does not mandate a stay of discovery even if the stay has been requested. AMC Fabrication, Inc. v. KRD Trucking West, Inc., 2012 WL 4846152 (D. Nev.) (courts retain discretion to determine whether discovery should go forward in the face of a motion challenging jurisdiction).

Based on the foregoing, the Court will deny the proposed discovery plan and require the

1 parties to conduct a Rule 26(f) conference and submit a stipulated discovery plan, in full
2 compliance with LR 26-1, by October 30, 2013. The failure to participate in developing and 3 submitting a proposed plan may result in sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(f).

4 DATED: October 16, 2013.
